Sargent's Lists

These lists of inscriptions were taken off and alphabetized by Augusta Sargent in preparation for the writing of the town history. They cover the period to the middle 1890's. They include at least some of the epitaphs which our transcriptions do not. The book was found in the vault of the town hall and is now in the possession of the Plymouth historical association. The handwriting is beautiful - the old almost engraved style of that period. The book is a notebook of lined paper 6 1/2 inches wide by 8 3/4 inches long.

Cover gives cemeteries included:
