Volume I

PLYMOUTH CEMETERY RECORDS

These notebooks have been revised by Nancy Bird, Pease Public Library Volunteer in 2009.

Some pages have been copied or condensed.

The original order has been revised to make the contents easier to read and understand.

Volume I- Index to all Plymouth Records

Volume II- Riverside Cemetery Records- 1987 updated and revised version and original 1963 version.

Volume III- Other Plymouth Cemeteries and Family Plot Records- 1987 updated and revised version and original 1963 version.

Also included in Volume III are cemetery lists compiled by other individuals; 1. Unknown compiler and date

2. Sargent List (compiled by Augustus Sargent for the town history in 1895)

3. X List (Unknown compiler, believed done between 1926-1930)

The final section of Volume III is a copy of Cemetery Account Records from May 1899 to August 1927.

Volume IV & V. Index to Area Cemeteries

CEMETERY LOCATIONS TO ACCOMPANY BAGLEY/VACCA CEMETERY RECORDS

1. STEARNS Go up Texas Hill Road to Old Hebron Road, walk back about 1000 feet, or so & on right is an obscure road leads to cemetery.

2. LONE GRAVE Reservoir Road, about a mile, look for iron railing, no stone marker.

3. LONE GRAVE Go up Texas Hill Road to Cummings Hill Road, at the junction of these 2 roads start down the hill on Cummings Hill Road, then up a hill, see a trailer on the left, at the side of the road look for an iron railing, the grave stone is on the ground and broken name "Seavey"

4. DEARBORN/ELLIS take Reservoir Road, at the top of the first hill look for an old farm, at the left of the house is cemetery this was the first cemetery in Plymouth

5. SPENCER go out Tenney Mt. Highway to Arlyn Farms, large, former farmhouse on right, the cemetery is behind house in a field, sometimes called the Old Smith Bridge Cemetery has Plymouth's oldest grave, the Widow Bridget Snow

6. HUNT/HULL Go out Fairgrounds Road to the entrance to the fairgrounds, look for home of M. Allen, not quite opposite entrance (has swimming pool in back) the cemetery is behind this house.

7. COOKVILLE go out Fairgrounds Road to Cookville Road (opposite Beech Hill Road) follow Cookville Road to end before turn, the cemetery is on a banking behind the last house.

8. NEAR YEATON MILL/BARTLETT CEMETERY follow Tenney Mt. Highway to Yeaton road, turn left, look for a cemetery with a stone wall around it and a gate.

9. LOWER INTERVALE Follow route 3 (Main Street) south to just before Cummings Hill Road, look for a dirt road on the left (Cummings Hill Road is on the right), turn down dirt road to the flats.

10. TURNPIKE/BLODGETT Follow route 3A in west Plymouth towards Bristol, look for the old Turnpike School, cemetery is across from school.

11. Beech Hill Road (considered Plymouth although actually in Campton) follow Fairgrounds Road to Beech Hill Road, go up Beech Hill Road about a mile and a half, staying with the steeper part of the hill at the junction a mile up, look for a "connecting road" that goes to Lower Beech Hill, cemetery on left.

12. UNION Follow River Road to first right, Bridgewater Hill Road, go about a mile, this cemetery is partly in Plymouth and partly in Bridgewater.

14. RIVERSIDE Follow Fairgrounds Road from Route 3 for a very short distance, cemetery is on right, Plymouth's newest cemetery/plot map on building in 1972 a law was passed in NH that requires cemeteries to keep a card file of burials for access to plot.

(Trinity Cemetery is in Holderness just past the Holderness Prep School)
